"THE PHANTOM FUGITIVE"

Two-Reel Universal Action Drama

Starring EDDIE POLO

JIM LANE, through the efforts of his friend, Cyclone Smith, is elected sheriff of Sunset City—much to the disgust of ex-Sheriff Crawley. Cyclone Smith is in love with the Sheriff's daughter, Daisy.

The Sheriff's first duty is to clean up a gang of outlaws in Cache Canyon. Two hours later the Sheriff returns tied to his horse, having been shot by the outlaws. Cyclone Smith swears to revenge his pal. He frames up with the village doctor to stage a fight in a saloon and make a fake killing. After this, Cyclone Smith is driven out of town and rides towards Cache Canyon. There he tells the outlaws he is a fugitive from justice and is admitted in the Canyon. Later, while talking to one of the outlaws, he discovers the man who shot the Sheriff. He grabs this fellow and dashes away on his horse.

In the meantime ex-Sheriff Crawley has gotten together a posse and is out searching for Cyclone Smith. Daisy Lane, the Sheriff's daughter, follows later. She discovers Cyclone riding towards town with the bandit and tells him that the posse is after him. Cyclone, with the outlaw, and Daisy Lane make a short cut towards the jail where he deposits the Yuma Kid. A few minutes later the posse return and discover Cyclone and they are getting ready to mob him when the man whom Cyclone was supposed to have killed in the saloon turns up and explains that the whole thing was a frame-up and that Cyclone did it to gain admittance to the Cache Canyon.
